Welcome to our worship this morning.

We hope that you enjoy worshipping with us, and we invite you to stay behind and join us after the service for a cuppa at each of our centres.

We are a warm and welcoming church, accepting of all God's people; a diverse congregation in age and backgrounds; a place where everyone is valued for who they are now and not just what they might become; a place where everyone is encouraged to grow in faith, hope and love.

For more information about us, or about weekday services, Baptisms, Weddings, and other activities in the Ministry Unit, please speak with someone over morning tea or contact Fr Kenneth at St David's Rectory.

As a congregation we acknowledge the Kuku Yalanji and the Yirrganydji peoples, the traditional owners of the land on which our churches are built. We pay our respects to Elders past, present and emerging, and we recognise their custodianship and role in caring for and maintaining Country over thousands of years.

IT'S VOLUNTEERS' WEEK

Volunteers are a vital part of many agencies and certainly the church relies heavily on the work done by many people, some of whom are not even part of the worshipping family.

One place where non-worshipping people volunteer for the church is at the Op Shop and on this Friday, for the third year in a row (it's now the tradition!), we will be taking the Op Shop volunteers out for lunch as a small way of saying thank you for what they do.

The Community Centre and Ozcare are also having Volunteers' events this week.

PLEASE PRAY FOR THOSE IN NEED:

Davo (W), Enid (P), Esme (H), Talon (W), Sarah, Ron (S), Lyn (H), Noel, Pally (L), Tracy (C), Brian (K), Dn Eric (P), Dean (M), +Anthony (H-M), Leslie (R), Caleb, Don (G), Karla (M), Stanley (D), Bevan (L), Tyler (B), David (P), Clare, Jack, Olivia & Grant (O), Rob & Julie (W) & the residents of Ozcare & Mt Kooyong.

To add someone's name to this list, you must first get their permission, then let Fr Kenneth know by eMail.

CAN YOU HELP?

The Local Chaplaincy Committee which supports the chaplain at Mossman State High School is once again running the sausage sizzle at Carnivale.

Times are on Friday afternoon/evening (25th) from 4 to 11pm at the Port Douglas markets location or Saturday (26th) from 7am to 3pm down near the stinger net. If you can spare even just a couple of hours at any time over that time period contact Martine Plumble: 40988299 or 0409756991. Thanks.

EVENING OF PRAISE TONIGHT AT 6.30pm at the Mossman Uniting Church to celebrate Week of Prayer for Christian Unity.

RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION AT MOSSMAN STATE HIGH SCHOOL

Once a term there is an RI event at MSHS. It's this Tuesday when Bridgett Makotti will speak to the students. Bridgett is the wife of the Uniting Church Minister at Atherton, and works at the Lotus Glen Correction Centre. Please pray for this day.

MINISTRY UNIT COUNCIL MEETING

The meeting of the Ministry Unit Council will take place tomorrow evening at 6.30pm at St Andrew's Church. Booklet s are ready to take this morning.

DOUGLAS SHIRE COUNCIL MEETING

At it's meeting last Tuesday the Douglas Shire Council approved the Combined Application Planning Scheme Variation And ROL (1 Into 5 Lots) 6 Endeavour St Pt Douglas. This is just one step along a long road which should result in a new rectory built on the land next to St Andrew's.

PRAYER FOR THE ELECTION OF A BISHOP

Eternal God, shepherd and guide, in your mercy give your Church in this Diocese a shepherd after your own heart who will walk in your ways, and with loving care watch over your people. Give us a leader of vision and a teacher of your truth. So may your Church be built up and your name glorified; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

Read: John 20:19-23

Gospel Summary

There is much to be attentive to in today's short Gospel reading. First, Jesus appears to his disciples and says to them, "Peace be with you." Then he says, "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." He concludes by breathing on them the Holy Spirit, saying, "Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." We see these three statements hinted at in the liturgical and sacramental life of the Church: "Peace be with you"—the Sign of Peace; "As the Father has sent me, so I send you"—the Dismissal of the Mass; and "Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, . . ."—the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation.

Reflection for Parents

One of the greatest gifts we can give to our children and to our families is the gift of peace. Peace is a Fruit of the Holy Spirit, a visible sign to others that we are living under the guidance of the Holy Spirit and according to the laws and commands of God. Take time today to think about the gift of Christ's peace in your own life. Do you have the gift of Christ's peace? Do you need the gift of Christ's peace? Where are you called to take the gift of Christ's peace today?

Bringing the Good News Into Your Family

On a piece of poster board or large drawing paper write the letters of the word "peace" vertically. Create a family Peace Acrostic by thinking of words and phrases that describe what people can do to share the gift of Christ's peace at home, at school, at work, and in the world. For example, the letter P could stand for, "Pray for world peace every day." Challenge family members to name as many words and phrases as they can think of. Post your Peace Acrostic in a place where all family members will see it and will be reminded to share the gift of Christ's peace with others.

THE DAY OF PENTECOST (Year B)

Sentence

'A new heart I will give you, and a new spirit I will put within you,' says the Lord; 'I will put my spirit within you and you shall live.'

Ezekiel 36:26;37:14

Collect

Almighty God, you sent your Holy Spirit to be the life and light of your Church: open our hearts to the riches of your grace, that we may bring forth the fruit of the Spirit in love, joy and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs -- in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: 'In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'

Hear the word of the Lord,

thanks be to God

The response to the verse of Psalm 104 is:

Send forth your Spirit, O Lord, and renew the face of the earth.

Send forth your Spirit, O Lord, and renew the face of the earth.

O Lord, how manifold are your works! in wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures.

Send forth your Spirit, O Lord, and renew the face of the earth.

Yonder is the great and wide sea with its living things too many to number, creatures both small and great. There move the ships, and there is that Leviathan, which you have made for the sport of it.

Send forth your Spirit, O Lord, and renew the face of the earth.

All of them look to you to give them their food in due season. You give it to them, they gather it; you open your hand and they are filled with good things. You hide your face and they are terrified; you take away their breath and they die and return to their dust.

Send forth your Spirit, O Lord, and renew the face of the earth.

You send forth your Spirit and they are created; and so you renew the face of the earth. May the glory of the Lord endure for ever; may the Lord rejoice in all his works. He looks at the earth and it trembles; he touches the mountains and they smoke.

Send forth your Spirit, O Lord, and renew the face of the earth.

I will sing to the Lord as long as I live; I will praise my God while I have my being. May these words of mine please him; I will rejoice in the Lord. Bless the Lord, O my soul, Alleluia!

Send forth your Spirit, O Lord, and renew the face of the earth.

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labor pains until now; and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words. And God, who searches the heart, knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

Hear the word of the Lord,

thanks be to God

Alleluia, Alleluia

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful: and kindle in them the fire of your love.

Alleluia

The Lord be with you
And also with you

The gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John, chapter 15, beginning at the 27th verse

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ

"When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who comes from the Father, he will testify on my behalf. You also are to testify because you have been with me from the beginning. "I have said these things to you to keep you from stumbling. They will put you out of the synagogues. Indeed, an hour is coming when those who kill you will think that by doing so they are offering worship to God. And they will do this because they have not known the Father or me. But I have said these things to you so that when their hour comes you may remember that I told you about them.

"I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you. But now I am going to him who sent me; yet none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?' But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your hearts. Nevertheless I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. And when he comes, he will prove the world wrong about sin and righteousness and judgment: about sin, because they do not believe in me; about righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will see me no longer; about judgment, because the ruler of this world has been condemned.

"I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

This is the gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ
